

Early Career Investigators Competition
2012 Award Application

The Early Career Investigator Award is designed to encourage promising investigators who are conducting original research in the field of Cardiology, Hematology, Thrombosis and/or Vascular Biology. One award will be given this year, which includes a research award and expenses-paid participation in the 7th Annual Platelet Colloquium on January 19-21, 2012. Previous winners of the Established Investigator Award are not eligible for nomination in future years.

In addition to your completed application, please submit 1) a 1-2 page summary of your platelet-related research, 2) a copy of your curriculum vitae, and 3) a letter from an immediate supervisor, department chair, division head, or similar detailing how much of the design, conduct, and analysis of the research project was performed by the candidate and any coinvestigators. If you are selected as an award winner, we will require a W-9 as well as an electronic file of your research slides to be included in the attendees' packets.
